

Exciting Opportunity for a Passionate PT Massage Therapist!

Are you ready to be part of a thriving, supportive clinic dedicated to helping women through their fertility, prenatal, and postnatal journeys? Our busy multidisciplinary clinics have been serving Calgary for over a decade, and we are seeking a Registered Massage Therapist (RMT) for our Deer Run, SE location to join our growing team. At our clinics, women are seen, heard, and understood, and we offer a range of holistic therapies including Acupuncture, Massage, Psychology, Osteopathy, Naturopathy, Nutrition, Physiotherapy, Yoga, and Chiropractic care. If you're ready to specialize in prenatal and postnatal care and want to make a meaningful impact, we would love to meet you!

Why join us?

- A busy clinic with a steady flow of patients and support to help grow your practice
- Direct billing to insurance companies for your patients' convenience
- Comprehensive marketing support through advertising, websites, and social media to build your reputation
- Full admin support so you can focus on your patients
- High-quality oils and linens are provided, ensuring a professional experience
- A community atmosphere where therapists collaborate, and patients feel valued
- Friendly, appreciative patients who love working with us—and we love them too!
- Free parking for your convenience

We're looking for someone who:

- Is available for shifts on Monday through Sunday at our SE Deer Run and Greenwich NW locations
- Has a passion for supporting pregnant and postpartum women
- Thrives in a collaborative environment with other therapists who are invested in your success
- Is registered with an accredited AB Massage association
- Sees this role as an exciting opportunity to specialize in prenatal care and build a thriving practice

If you're excited about the chance to grow your career in a supportive, patient-focused environment, we'd love to hear from you! Please submit your cover letter and resume to be considered.

While we appreciate every application, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
